

[UNIVERSAL FASTENER FOR ASTHMA INHALER]

Abstract

A device for securely attaching a medical inhaler that dispenses medication required by people who have asthma or other respiratory diseases that can be removably attached to the inhaler and includes the use of a spring loaded clip with jaws that will firmly attach to a garment and not be released.